Reading at home Booklet 2

Your child is learning to read with Read Write Inc. Phonics, a very popular and successful literacy programme. This booklet shows you how you can get your child off to a guick start.

Your child will learn to read in a very simple way. He or she will learn to:

1. Read letters by their 'sounds'

2. Blend these sounds into words

How will my child learn to read?

Your child will already have learnt to read:

qu ng nk ck

- Set 1 Speed Sounds: these are sounds written with one letter:
 masdtinpgockubfelhrjv
 ywzxand sounds written with two letters
 (your child will call these 'special friends'): sh th ch
- Words containing these sounds, by sound-blending,
 e.g. m-a-t mat, c-a-t cat, g-o-t got, f-i-sh fish,
 s-p-o-t spot, b-e-s-t best, s-p-l-a-sh splash
- Blending Books and Red, Green and Purple Storybooks.

Now, he or she will learn to read:

- Set 2 Speed Sounds: ay ee igh ow oo oo ar or air ir ou oy
- · Words containing these sounds
- Pink, Orange and Yellow Storybooks.

Next, he or she will learn to read:

- Set 3 Speed Sounds: ea oi a-e i-e o-e u-e aw are ur er ow ai oa ew ire ear ure
- Words containing these sounds
- Blue and Grey Storybooks.

Note: It is really important, when helping your child to read, that you are careful not to add an 'uh' sound onto the end of letter sounds. For example, the 'm' sound is a stretchy 'mmm', rather than 'muh'.

Notes

Storybooks Your child will bring home a Storybook each week, which they will have been taught to read by their reading teacher. Depending on the stage of the programme that your child is on, they will bring home a new storybook every 3 or 5 school days.

By the time your child brings this book home with them, they should find it easy to read. Please enjoy reading this book together and celebrate your child's reading with them. We want reading at home to be a positive experience.

A brief explanation of how to follow the activities is included in the books.

Book Bag Books

Your child may also bring home a Book Bag Book. This book builds upon the ideas and many of the words in the Storybook he or she has just read. Your child will need more support in reading this book.

Again, explanations of how to use the activities are included in the books.

Listening to your child read at home

Children become better readers with practice. We suggest that you aim to listen to your child reading at home 5 times per week. When you do so, please record it in your child's reading record. You may wish to add a simple, praise comment, or you might like to ask your child a question about their reading, and record their response in their book.

Some questions you might like to ask your child:

Who is your favourite character in this story? Why?

If you could change something about this story, what would it be?

What is your favourite part of this story? Why?

Do you like this book? Why? Why not?

What other stories do you know like this one? Does it remind you of any that we have read together before?

Can you think of a different ending to this story?

There are also a few questions to ask your child at the end of each storybook

Glossary

Fred Talk— sounding out the word before reading (blending) sound-blending — putting sounds together to make a word, e.g. c—a—t cat

special friends – sounds written with more than one letter, sh, ng, qu, ch

Speed Sounds – the individual sounds that make up words

Read stories to your child with feeling! The more you love the story, the more your child will love reading.

How to listen to your child read

- Do not read the book aloud before your child reads it to you.
- Ask your child to read the sounds and words before he or she reads the story.
- When your child reads the story, ask him or her to sound out the words that he or she can't read automatically. Don't allow your child to struggle too much. Praise your child when he or she succeeds.
- Read back each sentence or page to keep the plot moving. (Your child's energy is going into reading the words not the story.)
- Do not ask your child to guess the word by using the pictures.
- Do it all with patience and love!

We have a story time every day at school so children develop a love of stories. We hope that you will do the same by reading a bedtime story to your child every night. We have wonderful books in school for you to borrow.
